War On Obicene Literature.

The grand jury of the Hustings court of Richmond having indicated all the newdealers in the city for seiling the Police Garatta, Palice News and Weeks' Doings, classed, as "obsence prints," the newsleaders not scaled as "obsence prints," the newsleaders not scaled any and resolved to discontinue the sale of those papers. They had hoped in this way to those papers. They had hoped in this way to escape the fine of $500 and imprisonment, the penalty fixed by law. Some of them propose, in order that the bookseliers way also feet the tigor of the law, that Zola's works, "It'Assemble," Namin," etc., shall be also placed under the ban as obscane literature.

An Able Police Force.
From the New York Son.
They have an extraordinary police force in Troy. A man was attacked at night, stunned, carried a quarter of a mile, and then robbed of his watch and chair, money, diamond pin, last, clothers and abone. Vesterday the police recovered the shoes.

Poor Connecticut.
From the New Haren Register.
Connecticut lies between New York and Massachusetts, the two wickedest States in the Union, and in the natural interchange of stacells between these two great omiters of crime they make a nort of highway of Conneclicut.
